Spring Quarter Begins With Usual Bustle and Flurry of Excitement

The Spring Quarter began last Tuesday.
In the turmoil of registration day, students braced themselves for another three months of College life. After the long and dreary winter months, this quarter promised to be the most enjoyable from the social as well as from the intellectual point of view.

College High Wins at Tarkio Festival Meet

Horace Mann High School students carried off two excellent ratings in the two divisions they participated in at the annual speech and music festival sponsored at Tarkio College last Friday.

The high school's one act play, "Hog Business" received a rating of excellent from the judges. The cast, directed by Margaret Kyle, a College senior, included Luther Townsend, Frank Callahan, Belvedere Crain, and Mary Zoe Wilson.

A rating of excellent was awarded to the high school debate team which is coached by Harold Brueggeman, another College student. Debaters on the team included Russell Penn, Belvedere Holmes, and Ralph Tindall.

Dr. J. P. Kelly of the College speech department accompanied the group.

About . . .

...as with the 1000

A number of Seniors have been inquiring about late in hopes of finding information about graduate schools. It seems that very few have been able to find a place on the campus where they would find such information.

Perhaps the Student Senate might come to the aid of graduating students here. If the Senate could gather information on graduate schools and place it where it would be available to students, (perhaps in the library), it might answer some of the questions Seniors have been asking.

Classes on Wednesday were short. In fact a good many were very short. Many classes were held only about five or ten minutes and dismissed. This method keeps the student at the College all the day, and he probably spends not more than an hour altogether in class.

The new method of pre-registration has eliminated a great deal of confusion, and it seems that now the next step might be some method of economizing on time the day after enrollment.

Another point on registration, on Wednesday, which was the second day for registration, faculty members chatted patiently in the Old West Library, while students, most of them registered early the day before, loitered in the halls. Classes were short so they did not have to remain in them.

"It seems that a smaller group of faculty might handle second-day registration, or perhaps, faculty might remain in their offices and have students who are registering the second day look them up.

New Tower Queen Will Be Chosen Next Wednesday

Men Students to Cast
Ballots For Reigning
Beauty of Scoop Dance.

Who shall be the Tower Queen of 1940? Whose sceptre shall wield absolute power at this year's Scoop Dance? Who shall have the position which is coveted by every woman on the campus? Men students of the College will have to decide the question on Wednesday of next week when they will cast their ballots for their choice for Tower Queen of 1940.

The election has been set for Wednesday, March 13, and will be held under the direction of the Student Senate in the halls of the Administration Building. The winner will be crowned Tower Queen at the annual Scoop Dance sponsored by the staffs of the two College publications, the Northwest Missourian and the Tower, and the four runners-up will be her attendants. The vote will be by secret ballot and polls will be open from 8 a. m. till 4 p. m. Every man student of the College will be entitled to a vote in the contest.

Strictest secrecy will accompany the election, and the results will not be disclosed before the night of the Scoop Dance, Saturday, March 16. The crowning of the Queen this year will be more elaborate than ever in the past, and it will be for the first time that the students themselves have been left to decide the Queen. In former years the outcome was either decided by the Tower staff or was left to the taste of a celebrity.

Students will take their pick from the list of ten young women who were nominated at an assembly three weeks ago and whose pictures are now on exhibition in the display case on the second floor of the Administration Building. The following are the candidates for Tower Queen of 1940:

Mary Jeanette Anthony, Maryville, senior.
Iola Argo, Skidmore, junior.
Marjory Stone, Ridgeway, junior.
Virginia Thomas, Hemple, junior.
Florence Abarr, Diagonal, Iowa, sophomore.
Priscilla Ann Feagans, Henrietta, freshman.
LaVeta McQueen, Rushville, freshman.
Mary Louise Riggs, Richmond, freshman.
Betty Jean Todd, Maryville, freshman.
Mary Frances Todd, Mound City, freshman.

Students May Have Two Subscriptions

New students registering for the spring quarter, and others who have not signed for the Northwest Missourian this quarter, should do so this week.

Many of them, apparently, do not realize that enrollment in the College entitles them to two subscriptions to the Northwest Missourian. One subscription, of course, is for their own use, the other is for their parents, or another person to whom they may wish to have the Missourian sent.

Those students in the College who wish to have the newspaper sent home, and who have not signed for the paper, are urged to do so at once. New students especially are requested to come to the Missourian office and sign now. It will not be necessary for students who signed at the beginning of the winter quarter to sign again.

Dean Jones to Show Motion Pictures

Dr. J. W. Jones will show colored moving pictures of Mexico, and will talk about the country of Mexico at the assembly next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, March 11.

During the Christmas holidays, Dr. J. W. Jones and Mrs. Jones and President and Mrs. Lamkin visited in Mexico. While there they visited the following cities: Mexico City, Xochimilco, Cuernavaca, Tasco, and Puebla. Dr. Jones took the moving pictures while on the trip.

Miss Jean Taylor, former College student, has been appointed to a civil service position with the National Labor Relations Board at Washington, D. C. She reported for work at Washington, Tuesday.

Miss Taylor attended the College during the fall and winter quarters this year. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, of Patonsburg, Mo.

Gives Major Entertainment
Margaret Speaks

Margaret Speaks Will Be Here on Stage, March 18

Famous Radio and Concert Soprano to Sing in Auditorium

Margaret Speaks, world famous radio and concert soprano, will be presented in the major entertainment of the spring quarter Monday night, March 18, in the College Auditorium.

Miss Speaks was born in Columbus, Ohio, and educated at Ohio State University. Her voice was trained in this country and has never had any foreign tutelage. During her university days Margaret Speaks was the director of the Women's Glee Club, sometimes conducting in the absence of the maestro. She filled her first radio engagements before her school days were finished.

After her graduation she went to New York to continue more serious study of music, working in musical comedy, singing in churches, and filling in as a non-paid guest on the radio. Then came the days when she worked in trios on the air. At one time she worked on four different programs a week. Through the Firestone Chorus she became a soloist on one of the most distinguished programs on the air. She has worked on this program for five years, meanwhile appearing in concert throughout America and Europe.

Miss Speaks comes from a distinguished musical family of which at least three generations have given well known musicians to the world. Perhaps the best known of these is Margaret Speaks' uncle, Olej Speaks, who is known for his "Sylvia", "On the Road to Mandalay", "Morning", and many others. Margaret Speaks always sings "Sylvia" on each of her concerts for she says that if it is not on the program it will be requested as an encore.

Miss Speaks is familiar to almost everyone on account of her five years on radio during which she has been introduced as "the golden voice of Firestone."

Admission will be by activity ticket, and announcement will be made later about reserved seats.

Joan Taylor Will Assist at Clinic

Announcement has just been received this week that Joan Taylor, broadcaster for John Taylor's, Kansas City clothing store, will assist with the Personal Appraisal Clinic. She will be here Wednesday, March 13 to take some individual conferences and to assist with the demonstrations.

M. I. A. A. Champs Leave Monday For National Meet

Tuesday is Declared
Maryville Day; Band
And Pep Squads to Go

Maryville's green and white warriors take to the road next Monday morning when they journey to Kansas City to participate in the National Intercollegiate basketball tournament sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of that city. Tuesday has been designated, as Maryville Day and Mr. T. C. Reid local chairman, is rapidly arranging details for a caravan of cars to take loyal Maryville fans to see Maryville's first tourney game played that night.

The Bearcats are representing the State of Missouri together with Tarkio college. The Tarkio club represents the MCAU and the Bearcats, the MIAA. Missouri will be allowed a third entry if some other state does not send an entrant.

The second game of the evening will be Maryville's first appearance in the tourney this year. The usual members of the squad will make the trip and most of them will probably see service. Bob Rogers, who is ill with diphtheria, will be unable to play. Other members of the club are in good condition.

Maryville fans composing the caravan, will leave the city around 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon with an official state patrol escort. Arriving in Kansas City shortly after 4, they will be met by an escort sent out by Chief of Police Reed. They will proceed downtown in a merry fashion making plenty of noise.

The College band will be the official band for the evening, being guests of the tournament committee. Arrangements are being made to transport the pep squads to see the tourney which is being held in the Municipal Auditorium.

Tickets for the students are on sale in Mr. Reid's office at a reduced rate of 55 cents for a reserved seat ticket. Townspeople may obtain the same ticket for 85 cents at the Chamber of Commerce offices, under the Carnegie library or call Mr. Reid, Hanamo 4146.

Two College busses will be used for transporting the band and part of the pep squads with private cars carrying the rest. Mr. Reid stated that gas and oil would be paid for a car that carries at least three members of the pep squad, besides the driver.

Drake U. Combines Men, Women Sports

(The Missourian ACP News Service)
Des Moines, Iowa. (Special)—
There is something new under the sun!

Co-educational physical education has been inaugurated at Drake university, and for the first time men and women will compete together at the fieldhouse, in the women's gymnasium and on the golf course as well as in the classroom.

Last semester two golf classes and three social dancing classes were offered for credit to both men and women. "There is no question about the success of these classes," Ruby Anna Holton, head of the women's physical education department, said. The classes are larger this year than ever before.

This semester it is planned to add badminton, bowling, horseback riding, archery and casting (for fish fans) to the schedule of courses. A future program, which probably will be enacted next year, may include canoeing, swimming and boating.

No official statistics are available on the number of educational institutions offering credit for co-educational physical education courses, but Noel H. Petree, head of the men's department, and Miss Holton say there are only "a few."

Students Give Talks

Two College students gave short talks before the weekly meeting of the Ladies Guild of the Maryville Presbyterian Church Monday evening. Eric Daniel and Harvey Zuckerman spoke on the topic "Education in Germany today."

"HMS Pinafore" Will Have Second Presentation at College Tonight

Mr. H. N. Schuster
Directs Music Cast in Satirical Light Opera

The Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, "Pinafore" will be presented by the students of the music department on the stage of the College auditorium for the second time this evening.

The light opera, which is directed by Mr. Hermann N. Schuster, faculty member of the Conservatory of Music, was presented last night for the first time. The elaborate stage scenery which adds a great deal to the effectiveness of the production, was made by a committee with Dr. J. P. Kelly in charge.

"M. H. S. Pinafore" is a satire on the British Navy, and it contains some very entertaining lyrics and dialogue. These ridicule officialdom and institutionalism and provide much amusement for the audience.

The cast which will present the operatic production tonight is as follows:

The Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B.—Robert Dunham.
Captain Corcoran—Robert Clark.
Ralph Rackstraw—Marlin Johnson.

Dick Deadeye—Vance Riffle.
Bill Bobstay—Ralph Remy.
Josephine—Rosa Lee Roark.
Hebe—Mary Ellen Hamilton.
Mrs. Cripps (Little Buttercup)—Arlene Congdon.

The scene for the production is the quarterdeck of H. M. S. Pinafore, off Portsmouth.

Expert to Head Staff and Guide Clinic Program

Personal Appraisal Clinic will occupy the spotlight position in College life next week from Tuesday, March 12, through Friday, March 15, when students will scrutinize themselves and their fellows in order to improve their general appearance, speech, posture, clothing, and grooming.

Under the supervision of a staff headed by an expert in personal appraisal and a general committee composed of members of the faculty and College students, general meetings emphasizing the importance of and actually demonstrating personal appraisal will be held throughout next week.

Mrs. C. Alex McBurney of Slater, Missouri, will head the staff for the events of the week as an expert on personal appraisal. Appointments for personal conferences with her may be made through the Office of the Director of Personnel for Women. The purpose of these conferences will be to make it possible for a competent person to help anyone interested to appraise his strong and weak points in general appearance, speech, posture, diet and weight, clothing, color and line in costume, and grooming. Each student will be helped with a program of correction where that is necessary.

May Use Question Box
Mrs. McBurney is a graduate of Washburn College and has done graduate work on costume in the Fine Arts department of the University of Kansas. As a creator of original designs, she has been connected with exclusive gown shops in Kansas City and Philadelphia. During a stay in New York City last fall, she visited the Delaford Success School, the Helen Rubinsteyn Salon, and the Elizabeth Arden Salon in order to familiarize herself with the technique of personal appraisal in which she has always been interested.

A question box has been placed in the corridor on the second floor of the Administration Building. Students may turn in questions on anything regarding personal appearance or personal effectiveness, which will be discussed later during the demonstration clinics.

Various organizations on the campus will cooperate this year in order to make the Personal Appraisal Clinic a successful venture. Members of the Art Club have drawn posters and charts emphasizing the importance of color and line in costume which will be hung in the halls of the Administration Building. The Home Economics Club will discuss the importance of correct diet and foods, the Women's Athletic Association will stress correct posture, and the O'Neillians will emphasize the importance of speech in personal appraisal.

Committees
The general committee for the Personal Appraisal Clinic is headed by Mrs. McBurney and composed of the following faculty members and students representing different campus organizations:

Miss Dorothy Truex, Dr. Margaret Ruth Smith, Miss Miriam Waggoner, Miss June Cozine, Miss Hettie M. Anthony, Miss Olive DeLuce, Miss Chloe E. Millikan, Dr. J. P. Kelly, and Mr. J. L. Zwingle.

Alleen White and Erman Bird for the Student Senate; Virgil Elliott, Northwest Missourian; Francis Stubbs, Inter-fraternity Council; Mary Worley, Kappa Omicron Phi; Harriet Harvey, W. A. A.; Robert Turner, Art Club; Harold Brueggeman, O'Neillians; Marjorie Powell, A. C. E. and Pan-Hellenic; Kenneth Crawford, N. Y. A. Quad; Jean Marline, Residence Hall; and Crystal Cooper, Varsity Villagers.

The Program
Tuesday, March 12
Identical Preliminary Meetings at 11 a. m. in Social Hall. The different groups cooperating in the project will present their particular functions in personal appraisal.

Individual Conferences from 1:30 to 4 o'clock in Recreation Hall, scheduled at 15 minute intervals and conducted by Mrs. McBurney and Miss Truex.

Hull Finishes Second in MIAA Score With 86

Hackett, Third, and Hull Are Nosed Out by Bruce, Rolla Forward

Harold Hull and captain Dale Hackett of this year's Bearcat basketball squad finished second and third, respectively, in the M.I.A.A. basketball scoring race for 1940.

With 86 points, Hull, who had been top scorer since the beginning of the season, was deprived of first place in the last weeks of the basketball season by Bob Bruce, fast-moving forward for the last-place Rolla Miners. Bruce, who had moved between second and fourth, but was never able to make first position in previous weeks, finished with 82 points through 39 field goals and 14 free throws.

Hull, who scored his points by sinking 28 baskets and 34 free throws, was closely followed on the heels by Dale Hackett, Bearcat captain, who had 84 through 30 field goals and 24 free throws. Herb Mulkey of Cape finished fourth with 75 points to lead Lennis Burrows of Springfield by one point. Vernon Law of Warrensburg took sixth with 70 points.

Three 'Cats on Post-Dispatch All-Star Team

With the arrival of spring, the basketball season has ended, but the contests of the last few months have by no means been forgotten. Now is the time for the selection of all-star teams and among the first to appear is the MIAA all-star selection of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Three players on the green-and-white basketball squad—Harold Hull, Captain Dale Hackett, and Don Johnson, have been placed on the first team, and one—Hutchison—has included in the second-team roster. Only one, Bob Rogers, is included among those honorably mentioned.

The complete St. Louis Post-Dispatch MIAA all-star selections follows:

First Team
Forward—Law, Warrensburg
Forward—Bruce, Rolla
Center—Hull, Maryville
Guard—Hackett, Maryville
Guard—Johnson, Maryville

Second Team
Forward—Burrows, Springfield
Forward—Bass, Kirksville
Center—Gibbs, Warrensburg
Guard—Hutchison, Maryville
Guard—Heller, Warrensburg
Honorable mention: Shores, Kirksville; Mulkey and Agosti, Cape Girardeau; Rogers, Maryville; Kamper, Rolla, and Lechner, Springfield.

In its all-star selections, the Post-Dispatch said:

The Maryville Teachers won 20 basketball games in a row this season, 10 of them to capture the championship of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association, and as a result of their fine play, the conference coaches placed three Bearcats on the all-conference team picked for the Post-Dispatch.

"While the Bearcats had three men on the first five, only one other player from the Northwest school made the second team. The second place Warrensburg quintet placed one man on the first team and two on the second, while, the last-place Missouri Mines pulled the unexpected and placed one man on the first team. Rolla was not represented on the second five."

"Dale Hackett, Bearcat captain and star guard, was the only man to get all six of the coaches' votes, and because of this was named captain of the mythical quintet. His running mate, Harold Hull, garnered five of the six votes and was placed at center. Vernon Law, small forward, who has kept Warrensburg in the race all season, also received five votes for the first team and won a forward berth. Bob Bruce, the Miners' high-scoring center, was moved to the forward-post, because he received four of the six votes."

"Apparently the coaches hesitated before they named the fifth member of the team, but finally gave Don Johnson of Maryville three votes, more than any other candidate following him received."

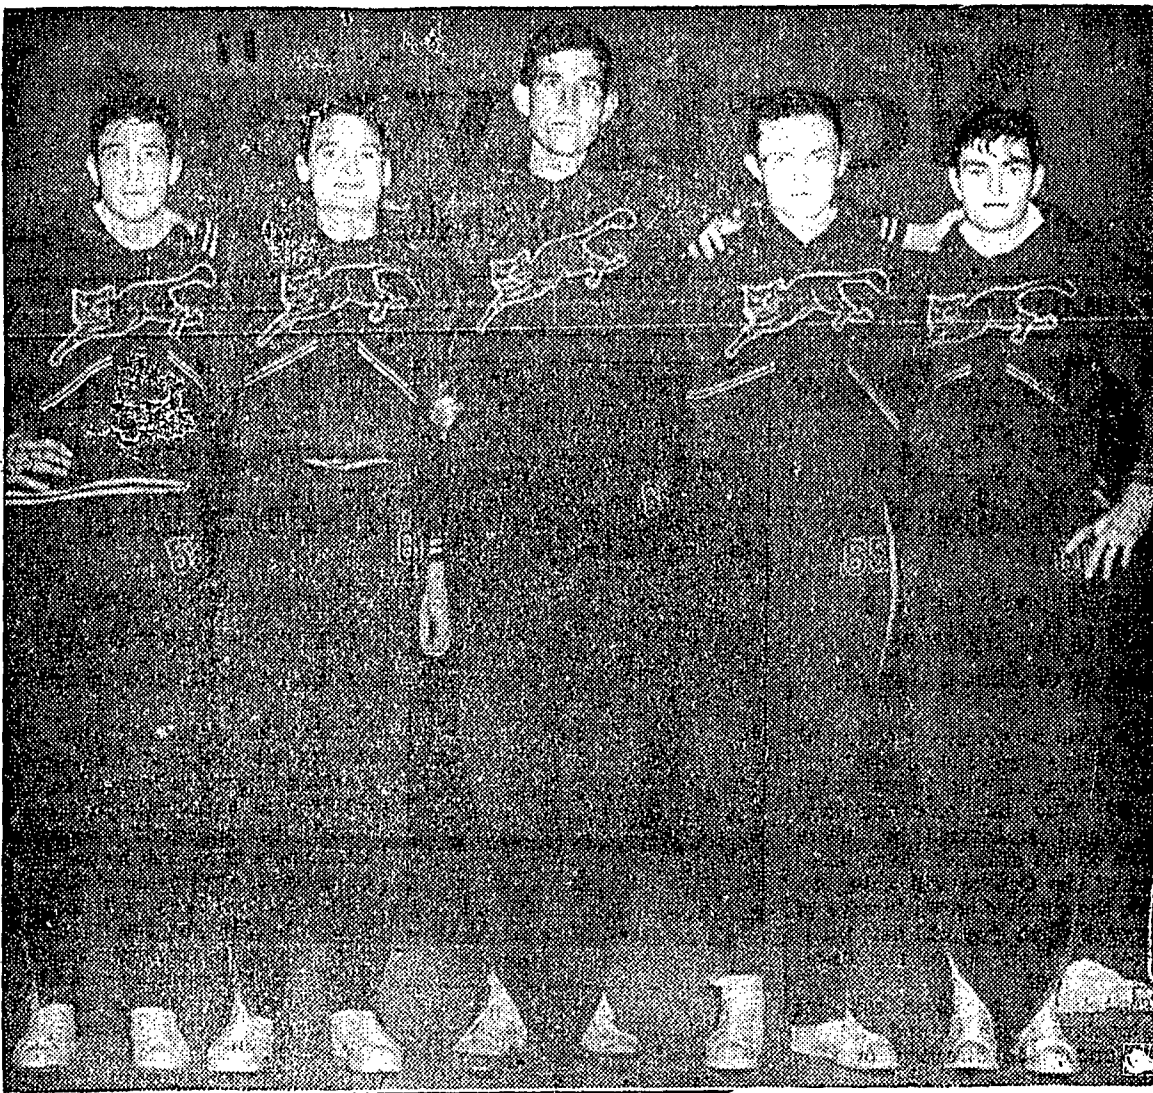

"The second five received votes for first-string positions, and the honorable mention contains all the players who received a vote for either the first or second team."

"One coach, mentioned Hull and Law as the best men in the conference, and called Johnson and Heller the two best defensive players in the circuit. Hackett was styled by the same coach as having 'the most drive.'"

"Hutchison of Maryville, who was picked on the second team, was called by another mentor the most improved player in the conference."

Faculty Dames Have Evening Swimming

Miss Miriam Waggoner, chairman of the physical education department for women, has announced that there will be recreational swimming for faculty women and faculty wives at the College pool on Monday night at 8 o'clock. Those who plan to attend must bring a cotton bathing suit, a swimming cap, bath slippers, and a swimming permit from Dr. F. R. Anthony.

Bearcats Not Eligible for New York Meet

Former Coach Iba's Team is Only One From Mid-West

Definite word has been received here that the Maryville Bearcats were considered for the basketball tournament in Madison Square Garden in New York the middle of this month. However, due to the fact that the tournament rules bar colleges that play freshmen the Maryville Teachers could not be issued an invitation.

Word has been received from Merle E. Seelman, formerly of Maryville, who was in contact with Ned Irish who is publicity man for the tournament. The tournament was started three years ago by the Basketball Writers' Association of New York City but this year placed in the hands of a committee. Prof. Walter Williamson of City College of New York is chairman of this committee who informed Mr. Irish of the rulings which barred the Bearcats.

The only mid-western team to be represented in the tournament will be the Oklahoma Aggies, coached by Henry P. Iba, former Bearcat coach. Buddy Millikan of Maryville is a member of the Aggie cage squad.

Bearcat Claws...

...by ken tebow

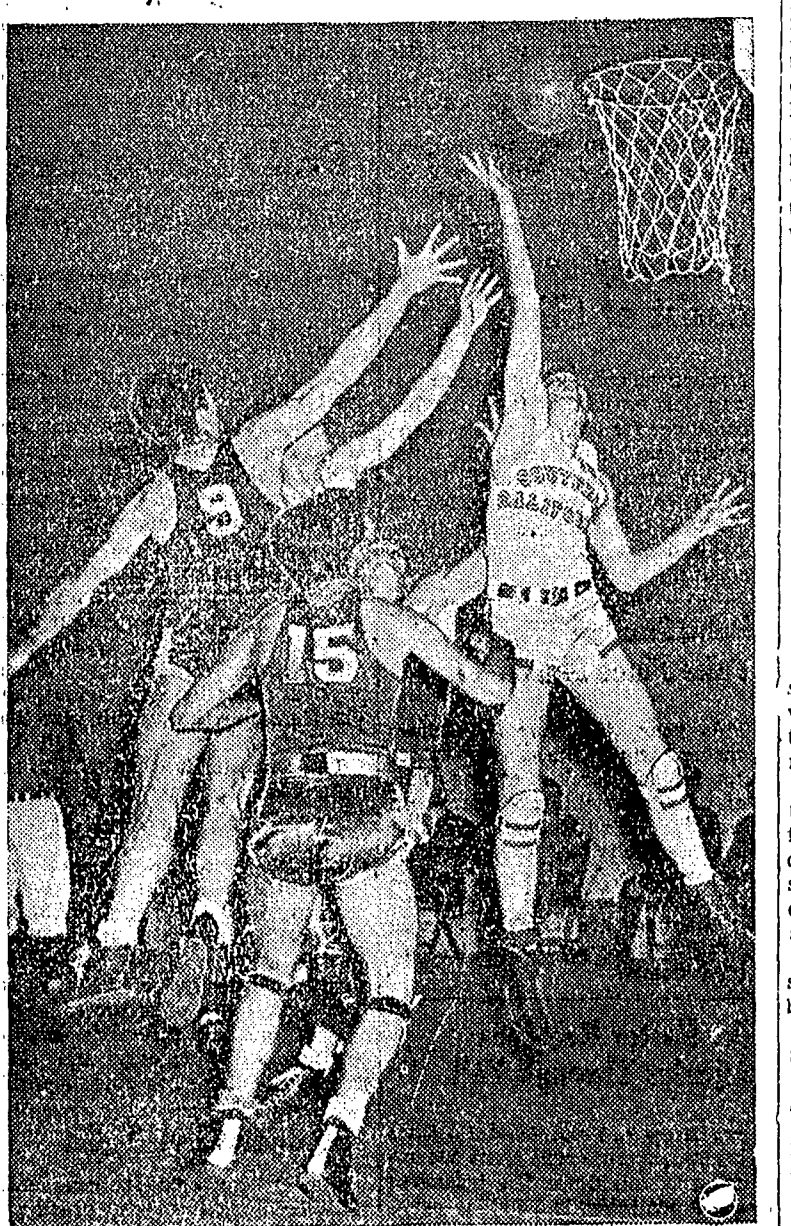

Spring is here and with it come the birds, the bees, and the trees with their leaves. But our basketball, as far as we are concerned, is quite unfinished. Although this was expected, it was not officially announced until early this week that the Bearcats are entered in the National Intercollegiate tournament held in Kansas City. A front page story covers this in a competent manner but possibly a little about some of the other teams entered would be in order.

The Southwestern Builders from Winfield have been entered from Kansas. It will be remembered that this squad defeated Maryville last year and went on to win the championship from San Diego State by a 1-point margin. They have made it known that they will be trying to retain that trophy.

A gridiron opponent of the Bearcats will be in the court play. That foe is considered the strongest team in Nebraska—Peru State Teachers. Missouri is being allowed two representatives this year. Maryville from the MIAA and Tarkio of the MCAU. There is a possibility of another Missouri entry providing some state does not send a team. Warrensburg and Missouri Valley college held a play-off game last night to determine which would be eligible but not entered yet.

Ho, Hum---What's the Use?

Joe Reising, Southern California center, pops in a close-up shot against U. C. L. A. in Los Angeles as trio of Bruins try vainly to stop him. It was the Bruins' 30th consecutive Pacific Coast Conference defeat and their 27th straight setback by the Trojans.

Coach Stalcup fully realizes that this tournament brings together the top college teams in the United States and that means they are good. It is understood that Coach Tom Scott of the Warrensburg Mules would like to have another crack at the title-toting Bearcats. Speaking personally, it would be just another crack and that's all.

Other entries include San Diego State from California, runner-up in 1939 and now rated one of the four strongest teams of the Pacific Coast; West Texas State, "the tallest team in the world," an Aberdeen, South Dakota team that is rated high; and Appalachian State from Boone, N. C., termed the "hottest team in the South."

From the looks of the roster of entered teams there seems to be no doubt as to the strength of the winners. Whoever it is will know they are good when the final game is ended. The Bearcats have a chance and they will hold that chance close and fight to the last "ditch." Good luck and may your best playing follow you!

Bob Rogers, Dale Hackett, Harold Hull, Don Johnson, and Harold Hutchison were chosen to represent the Bearcats as true Maryville cagers on the All-MIAA teams this year. These men have shown the hustle and spirit that, and quoting myself again, "only a winning team can have." This column offers them honors of the highest degree for this achievement. Also to those other men on the squad, who made it possible for these five to receive this distinction, praise of the loudest volume is extended.

While we are in the business of passing around honors, one should be given to that fitful little office girl who ably aids Athletic Director Davis in his office work, Miss Betty (Gorilla) Todd. She says she likes anything from dandelions to roses and possibly razors.

Do You Know Your GHI'S?

Aesop had a way of telling fables to get across a story with a moral in it—that is, a story with a point to it. That is what this is going to be—a story with a "point" to it.

It was in the good old summer time that a group of brave young heroes, who shall be nameless here, decided that a bit of watermelon would taste very well. So, in the dim gray light of dawn, our heroes descended in a Hull group on the unguarded and defenseless Isle of Paradise wherein rested the forbidden fruit.

They crept under, not over, the Gates, in single file. Then suddenly they were startled by a Howell from the near-by farm house. Was that the old watch-dog? Perhaps it was better to let someone Giforth alone and get the Green fruit.

"I'll Gamble I can get them unmolested" wagered one young fellow, so they let him try to Garner the fruit, which he did. After that, they were so Gey over his victory, they failed to note the stealthy approach of the farmer-who owned the patch.

Like a Hawk, the farmer pounced upon the raiders, his shotgun pointed unwaveringly at them. A successful Hunt had come to its logical conclusion!

"Haw back those melons," he demanded, noting the Glaze of surprise on their faces. "I knew there was a Heal of some kind around when I heard my hound Howell."

"Have a Hartman," pleaded the boys. "We meant no harm. We were joking."

"Go roll your Houps," responded the farmer. "I know better. I am taking you to town to make an example of you. Now, march."

The boys were of a different turn of mind, however, and promptly Hadorn led the way in making a Hasty retreat. Honeycutt across the field and sailed over the six-foot fence like a thoroughbred Hunter taking the barrier two lengths ahead of the farmer's buckshot. The others Gann to run, too, unappreciative of the farmer's good will in bidding them Goodspeed.

Of course, no one was hurt, but they all decided that everyone was a little wiser, if no Geyer, the morning after. But, they also agreed that if anyone ever suggested the idea of a raid, again, they would Hackett down, promptly.

The moral is: "Don't expect a Garder to be hospitable if he has a scattergun hidden away in his Garrett."

An Apple for the Teacher Is Not Recommended at Midland College

Nine Commandments for Professorial Favor Do Not Include Old Rule.

(The Missouriian ACP News Service) Fremont, Neb. (Special)—Hunting for a short-cut to a straight A average? If you are, heed the following nine-point program formulated for you by the ever-helpful editors of the Midland of Midland College!

1. Don't give your prof apples. Too obvious.
2. Find out his hobby and follow this up with well-planned questions to draw him out.
3. If the entire class walks out of classroom when the prof is 10 minutes late, be the only one to wait, even if it's half an hour. This procedure is good for a B-plus any day.
4. Always greet an instructor pleasantly, never using his first name, but a cheery "Good morning, professor."
5. When sitting at the faculty table in the dining hall or walking about the Administration building, always walk with your head down as if in deep thought, pondering some weighty problems in math or philosophy, for instance. This is highly recommended to get on the honor roll.
6. Offer to wash the professor's car, put up his storm windows or do any little job around the house, but don't accept any money for the work.
7. Apple polishing procedure in classrooms, including sitting in the front row, responding to professorial humor with loud, hearty guffaws and liberal use of big words. This is important—never use a two-syllable word where a five-syllable word will do.
8. Carry a lot of big reference books around. This is tremendously impressive and is worth an A minus in any class.
9. If you must close your eyes while in deep thought, wrinkle your forehead and otherwise look worried or the professor may get the wrong impression—and grade accordingly.

EDITOR'S NOTE: You might try studying, too!

Penn Dean of Women Hits Nail on Head

(The Missouriian ACP News Service) The men have been waiting for a long time, but they never believed it would be made.

When a man was reported to have entered a University of Pennsylvania women's dormitory, that institution's dean of women allayed the fears of gals and cops with the following:

"The man had more to fear than the girls—because 150 women are their own protection."

Members Talk at Joint "Y" Meet

"Living in a Christian Democracy" was the theme of the first Joint Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. meeting of the spring quarter held last night in Social Hall.

Short speeches were made by several members of the Y. W. C. A. The speakers and their topics were: "Personality in a Christian Democracy," Etta Marie Hagee; "Interfaith and Interracial Problems in a Racial Democracy," Lois Langland; and "Creative Living in a Christian Democracy," Marjorie Stone.

Beulah Wilkinson led the devotions and Paul Smith had charge of the meeting.

This Way

Should the woman aid the man in hailing a taxi?

If a man and woman are waiting for a cab, the woman should let the man hail it when it comes. It is very unladylike and poor taste for the woman to hail the cab.

2. What is the attitude about courtesy in the street?

In the street think of other people and try not to inconvenience anyone in any way. If you see someone in a hurry do not think you own the sidewalk or the street, but move a little, as some day you may be in the same position. Never call a person's name loudly in public as it does not speak very well for you. Never stop in busy thoroughfares and chat with someone as you know how you have felt when you have had to go out of your way to get by someone just because they were stopped chatting idly away.

3. How should the baked potato be eaten?

Never butter potatoes with the knife, or scoop the contents from the skin of the baked potato with it. When baked potatoes are passed you may take them with your fingers but never stab a fork in them. (Note: But how eat them?)

"A NEW DESIGN FOR WOMEN'S EDUCATION" by Constance Warren, President of Sarah Lawrence College (Stokes—$2.00)

Sarah Lawrence College has been the center of much discussion in the educational world, because of its radically different approach, some have questioned its real value as an institution of learning. Perhaps its best known contributions are its standards of no marks, no lectures, no examinations, no textbooks, and extremely liberal social regulations. But students who have deduced that because of those liberalities, Sarah Lawrence would be a "crip" are wrong—and this book by Constance Warren, its President, shows why. The story of what makes the wheels go around in this modern, progressive school is fascinating and told in readable style.

Principle plan in Sarah Lawrence's platform seems to be individualized training. The curriculum is built around the abilities and interests of each student, special advisers and projects instead of standard requirements leading to what is called "Custom-Built" education. Guiding aim seems to be to make the college serve the student and her individual development. The problem of discipline isn't acute—genuine interest in the experiment makes good community citizens.

Most interesting though was the description of "inter-collegiate week-ends for informal discussions." President Warren describes a visit by Sarah Lawrence girls to a group of Princeton boys where the piece de resistance was a talkfest on social problems in human relations. The possibility is raised that propaganda will replace the prom.

She: "Now that we're engaged, dear, you'll give me a ring, won't you?"

He: "Yes, certainly, darling. What's your number?"

Bloody Warfare Demands Victims in West Library

Broadway may mill with a densely-packed crowd of riotous pleasure-seekers till the early hours of the morning; department stores may be stormed by a howling mob of bargain-hunters during the pre-Christmas rush; fans may stage an uproarious celebration on the football field after the victory has been won; all these and the ensuing casualties may stare at you in flaring characters from the sensational headlines of newspapers all over the country, but nothing, no earthly catastrophe, no earthquake, no volcanic eruption, no second deluge can rival the slaughter, the excitement and the confusion of a registration day.

When the bugle call had sounded the retreat last Tuesday and weary faculty members from sheer exhaustion dropped on the battle-field, like some fabulous heroes, spent the night sleeping amidst the ravages of war, neutral observers were finally able to survey the ground and compute the losses that had been suffered during that hectic day.

Five carcasses were found on the floor of the Old West Library and their identity established after an autopsy had been performed. Two evidently belonged to two late faculty members who had fainted from signing their names once too often and had been trampled underfoot by the opposing forces locked in furious combat. Another corpse belonged to some unlucky freshman who, with youthful buoyancy, decided to change his schedule so often that he upset the nerves of his adviser and was slain at the hands of his mentor. It was later learned that this pardonable offense had been excused by the authorities and that the instructor received an official citation for bravery in action and for independent thinking in the face of a difficult situation.

The last two corpses were later identified as those of two sheep who had been mistaken for seniors and who had talked themselves to death in an attempt to converse with a faculty member. Their funeral took place yesterday, with a large part of the student body in attendance and sorrowfully mourning the death of two young men who showed so much promise of being able to instill knowledge into the minds of our little ones.

The number of injured was numerous, most of the casualties occurring at the desk of the treasurer and in the business office. Bleeding hearts and bodies from which a pound of flesh was torn with the most current complaints, but there were even rumors of shocking acts at the receipt of course books. A committee of students charged the members of the faculty with the perpetration of cruel acts and oppressive treatment of the inhabitants of the conquered territories, but the instructors retorted with a lengthy statement of their humanity in dealing out. Withheld grades. Our reliable correspondent reports that both these statements were exaggerated in some degree and that the two parties have agreed to a compromise, collaborating in the future as they have done in the past.

Now that the fight is over, the battle-scarred warriors have returned to their peace-time occupations. The exuberance acquired during the vacations has blown off and, like tired animals, they readily submit to the heavy yoke of servitude and study for another quarter. The battle is history, its wounds will heal and its animosities be forgotten, but how pitiful it is that such peace can only be established at so high a price, at the price of bloody strife and sacrifice.

Other highlights in the program will be a YMCA party to be held on March 28; a Camp Discussion, Thursday, April 4; the election of officers on April 11; the Longview Conference, scheduled for April 26, 27, and 28; Spring Retreat, Sunday, May 5; and a final YMCA dinner to be held on Thursday, May 16.

The two-day conference, which was held at the Maryville College three years ago, was held last year at Omaha, Neb., at which time Elliott was elected vice-president. The organization includes clubs from eight Mid-West states, and two Canadian provinces.

Dr. Henry Foster, sponsor of the campus Social Science—International Relations Club, who in past years has gone with the local members to attend the conferences, is unable to attend this year, due to an injury last week.

Report Reveals Similarity of Institutions

The annual report of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, released on February 18, as usual made the headlines. Also as usual, only the sensational statements were featured, in the "New York Herald-Tribune": "Carnegie Study Assails Colleges' Gifts Scramble." The really startling conclusion in the report of the President of the Foundation, Dr. Walter A. Jessup, is that there is now a remarkable similarity in all respects between public and private institutions of higher learning. The two types of institution, Dr. Jessup indicates, "admit much the same type of student," turn out the same "end-product, the graduate," reveal indistinguishable attitudes "toward their social responsibilities," have much the same standards and working conditions for their faculties, and similar physical equipment.

There are significant differences between private and public colleges, however—and these quite unexpected. Dr. Jessup cites the most recent survey of the U. S. Office of Education to show that "private institutions expend relatively more for administration" (14.9 as against 9.6 per cent), whereas public colleges and universities spend proportionately more for research (8 as against 3.7 per cent). "The relationships of both types of institution to the community are largely identical. 'The pressures of society,' said Dr. Jessup, 'are much the same for the two kinds of institution, whether expressed informally, as in the case of the drop in the demand for courses in Greek or Latin, or directly, as in the case of meeting the legal requirements for the various professions.'

As a result of general equality of standards and conditions, "publicly and privately controlled institutions find themselves competing for the favor of prospective students, faculty members, donors, and taxpayers. For the most part, they all are ready to adopt new programs and to abandon old ones if these changes can be made within the framework of their permanent commitments—Our academic predecessors might be a little surprised at our expensive publicity departments. The cost per capita of promotion in some institutions almost equals the entire per capita cost of instruction—the processing stage in industry—in others."

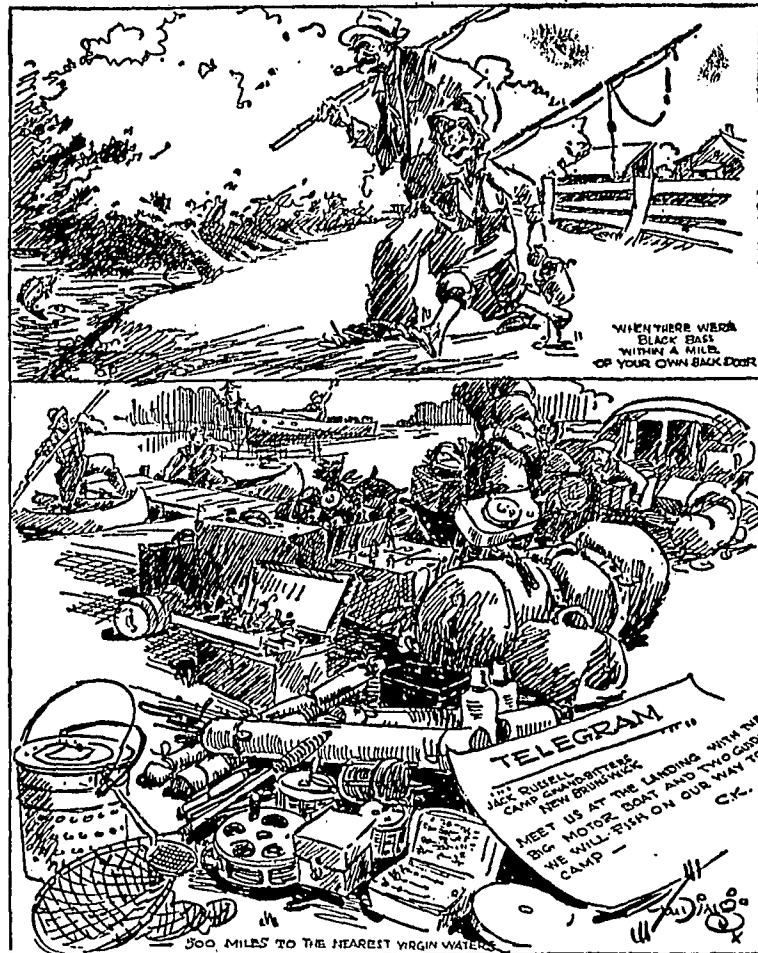

Good Clothes to Be Modelled at Personal Appraisal Week Finale

How would you look on a stage in the clothes you wear to school every day of the year? Would you make a half-way presentable figure or would your wardrobe look as if it had been collected from the dustbins of your neighbors? Wouldn't you wonder why you had not thought of better wardrobe planning before?

The finale of this year's Personal Appraisal Week which will take place in the College Auditorium on Friday, March 15, at four o'clock in the afternoon promises to help women and men students in their selection of clothing on a limited budget. Clothes for all types and figures will be modelled on the stage, and it is hoped that students

Fickle College Students Desert Swing Music for "Sweet" Tunes

Students Take Teachers Tests

Teachers examinations for those who wish to teach school in Nodaway county but do not have the required hours for a teaching certificate were given in Maryville last Friday and Saturday. W. H. Burr, Nodaway County superintendent of schools, announced that the following College students took the examinations: Raymond McClurg, Pickering, Mo. Elmer Mitchell, Burlington Junction, Anna L. Barber, Skidmore, Jack Munsel, Maryville, and William Scott, Maryville.

Two former students who also took the examinations, were Mary L. Hartness and W. L. Warnick, both of Maryville. The papers have been sent to the State department of education at Jefferson City to be graded. Results will be announced in about three weeks.

Jitterbugs Are in Minority, Student Survey Finds Out

By Student Opinion Surveys Austin, Texas, March 8—Current reports that swing music has lost first place among dancers are substantially correct, at least among college students. They have voted a preference for "sweet" tunes by a two-to-one majority in a nationwide poll of American campuses.

"Which do you like best, swing music, or the so-called 'sweet music'?" was the question presented to a representative sampling of collegians by the Student Opinion Surveys of America.

From the answers they gave, it is evident that jitterbug music, which took the country over last year, is definitely cut, for the "time being" any way. Only 32 per cent declared they preferred swing, while 66 per cent said "sweet" music like that of the Lombardes and the Kings was their favorite. A small group of 2 per cent said, "Neither."

Men and women students show practically the same preferences, although there are more boys than co-eds who still like swing. When the ballots were tabulated by sexes, these were the results:

	Men	Women
Swing	33%	30%
Sweet	64%	69%
Neither	3%	1%

Although the size of the majority varies from section to section over the country, swing got less than half of the votes everywhere:

	A	B	C
New England	43%	57%	0%
Middle Atlantic	35%	64%	1%
East Central	22%	75%	3%
West Central	30%	68%	2%
Southern	35%	62%	3%

Another Way . . .

The sole purpose of the National Youth Administration is, to quote from the federal report of 1938, "to help youth utilize constructively an extended period between school and a permanent job that might otherwise be wasted in idleness. Certain methods of obtaining this end come immediately to mind, such as: continuing the period of general education; providing work which will train the youth for regular employment; extending vocational training and job placement services; and improving recreational and leisure-time facilities available to young persons."

During the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1938 and ending June 30, 1939, a total of 14,000 students were enabled to continue their education in high school or college with NYA assistance. About 1000 high school and 60 colleges and universities participated in the program. This year's increased allowance of $750,000 for Missouri student aid will make it possible for the National Youth Administration to extend its benefits to approximately 4,200 additional needy high school and college students.

The students are provided with jobs, not scholarships. Work is required of all student aid recipients and the experience thus acquired has in many cases proved as valuable as the wages earned. Clerical and office work; library, museum, and laboratory assistance; the conducting of forums; adult educational classes and other civil services; special research; and grounds and building maintenance are among the types of work found for students to perform. In the case of College and graduate students, a special effort is made to assign them to tasks consistent with the course of study being followed, thus giving practical application to the theory of the classroom.
